John Sample is a good match to the personality requirements for the Customer Service Representatives position at Prevue Success Demo and should be invited to an interview. To better prepare for the interview consider ordering a full Prevue Job-Fit Report for this candidate to provide you with:

- Details of the candidate's strengths and potential challenges in addressing the demands of the position along with interview questions to help guide the process
- Information on the candidate's match to the learning speed (cognitive abilities) required for the position (will they find the work boring or too challenging); and
- The candidate's match to the motivational interests required in the position.
